10th Scientific Conference of Veterinary Medicine Students

WARSAW, 10 - 11.05.2024

INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM SCIENTIFIC OF VETERINARY STUDIES

NON SIBI SED

We are pleased to invite you to our anniversary edition of the 10th International Scientific Conference of Veterinary Medicine Students.

Welcome!

We are delighted to invite you to the 10th International Conference of Veterinary Medicine Students, which is jubilee edition of this scientific event dedicated to students. It will take place on May 10-11, 2025. This annual Conference is one of the most significant scientific gatherings organized by the students of the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, SGGW. During the Conference, speakers from both Poland and abroad will share their experiences and knowledge. The presentations will cover various topics related to animal health, modern diagnostic methods, treatment, and current trends in veterinary research. One of the conference highlights will be the opportunity for students and PhD students to present their research and case studies. This is an excellent chance for young researchers to showcase their achievements to an international audience and to exchange knowledge and experiences in the field of veterinary medicine.

The Conference facilitates the deepening of knowledge and fosters scientific connections with representatives from national veterinary institutions and renowned specialists from other countries. It provides an excellent opportunity for collaboration and the exchange of experiences among different academic environments. The organizers of the 10th International Conference of Veterinary Medicine Students warmly invite all interested parties to participate in this exceptional event. Please follow our website for detailed information on registration, the conference schedule, and the list of speakers. We welcome active participation in this inspiring initiative, which represents a significant step in shaping the future of veterinary medicine.
