The 8th International Scientific Conference “Economic Sciences for Agribusiness and Rural Economy”

VIII INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCE Economic Sciences for Agribusiness and Rural Economy under the theme: Food Systems' Security and Resilience.

The Institute of Economics and Finance at the Warsaw University of LifeSciences – SGGW is organising the next edition of the annual International Scientific Conference titled “Economic Sciences for Agribusiness and Rural Economy” (ESARE). Now in its eighth year, the conference will once again serve as a platform for exchanging ideas between the academic community and practitioners, both from Poland and abroad, whose research interests focus on the contemporary needs of the agri-food economy and rural areas. The main theme of this 8th edition is “Food Systems Security and Resilience”.

Registration by May 16th, 2025, and all information available via the conference’s website
